WE would call the attention of week tal gentlemen, droggress, and the public to the card of the Cran Orehord cells company, which appears in to-day's issue. This has long been a favorite emedy with many of our more proces nent physicians. Its speedy and com-tive effects in dispersis, discusses of the fiver and dysenisty, have been marked and wonderful. This medicine comes from nature's interactory, part and with-out adulturality in the manufaction of out addression by the manipolation of man. The promisers chain that it pos-sesses more of the great solving of the impurities of the shoot than any madiin purities of the blood than any medi-cine yet discoverned. If this be time, in most and will take its position at one-as the giant of remedies. To the scrat-curative powers of these sails, two or our citizens—Mr. F. S.
